

Trade Marketer" magazine is the leading news and information source for marketing and sales professionals and business managers. Magazine is premier, Polish publication for shopper marketing, merchandising, category management, POP concepts, shopper case studies, retail management, researches and trends. Our magazine focuses on the strategies and tactics involved in maximising retail business performance through effective information and business intelligence solutions.